DANA SHEEHAN JOINS READY PROPERTIES AS DIRECTOR OF RELOCATION

Brokerage Expanding its Corporate Relocation Capabilities

Calabasas, CA, June 11, 2015—Ready Properties, a leading California residential and corporate relocation brokerage announces the addition of Dana Sheehan to its management team. Dana will assume the role of Director of Relocation. Over the past decade, Sheehan has worked in all aspects of domestic and international relocation, and earned her Global Mobility Specialist designation in 2009.

With over 10 years' experience in corporate relocation, Sheehan is responsible for management of the Ready Properties Relocation Department as well as business development initiatives for the team of agents. In addition to providing real estate and relocation solutions for individuals, corporations and relocation management companies, she will oversee the relocation training of agents to maintain best practices and current trends in the industry.

Sheehan's business philosophy is that of solution leadership - leading clients to solutions that suit them. Relocation programs are customized for each client; the Ready Properties Team believes in taking the extra time to thoroughly understand and care for the needs of the individual or family. This approach allows for a smooth and successful relocation.

The Ready Properties brokerage began with one mission - to be the most respected and trusted residential and corporate relocation brokerage in California. Ready Properties has a reputation for working with only world-class agents who are driven to not only close escrows, but also to make your objectives our priority. We measure our results by the number of satisfied clients whose trust Ready Properties has earned.
